

Chapter – 6

Customers' Rights Policy

6. Introduction:

Rights of the customer applies to all products and services offered by Bank or its agents, whether provided across the counter, over phone, by post, through interactive electronic devices, on internet or by any other method.

6.1. Right to Fair Treatment:

Both the customer and Bank have a right to be treated with courtesy. The Bank will –

- (a) Promote good and fair banking practices by setting minimum standards in all dealings with the customers.
- (b) Promote a fair and equitable relationship between the bank and the customer.
- (c) Train bank staff attending to the customers, adequately and appropriately.
- (d) Ensure that staff members attend to customers and their business promptly and courteously.
- (e) Treat all customers fairly and not discriminate against any customer on grounds such as gender, age, religion, caste, literacy, economic status, physical ability, etc. Bank may, however, have special schemes or products which are specifically designed for members of a target market group or may use defensible, commercially acceptable economic rationale for customer differentiation. Bank may also have schemes or products as part of an affirmative action such as for women or backward classes. Such schemes / products will not tantamount to unfair discrimination. The rationale for such special schemes or terms will be explained by bank wherever required.
- (f) Ensure that the above principle is applied while offering all products and services.
- (g) Ensure that the products and services offered are in accordance with relevant laws and regulations.
- (h) While it shall be the endeavor of the bank to provide its customers with hassle free and fair treatment, the bank would expect its customers to behave courteously and honestly in their dealings with the bank.
- (i) It shall also be the bank's endeavor to encourage its customers to approach the bank's Internal Grievance Redressal machinery and approach alternate fora after exhausting all their remedies under bank's internal grievance mechanism.

6.2. Right to Transparency, Fair and Honest Dealing:

The Bank will make every effort to ensure that the contracts or agreements it frames are transparent, easily understood by and well communicated to the common person.

In pursuance of the above Right, the Bank will –

- (a) Ensure complete transparency so that the customer can have a better understanding of what he or she can reasonably / fairly expect from the bank.
- (b) Ensure that the bank's dealings with the customer rest on ethical principles of equity, integrity and transparency.
- (c) Provide customers with clear information about its products and services, terms and conditions, and the interest rates / service charges in simple and easily understandable language, and with sufficient information so that the customer could be reasonably expected to make an appropriate and informed choice of product.
- (d) Ensure that all terms and conditions are fair and set out the respective rights, liabilities and obligations clearly and as far as possible in plain and simple language.
- (e) Make known the key risks associated with the product as well as any features that may disadvantage to the customer. Most Important Terms and Conditions (MITC) associated with the product or service will be clearly brought to the notice of the customer while offering the product. In general, it will be ensured that such terms will not inhibit a customer's future choice.
- (f) Provide information on interest rates, fees and charges through Notice Board in the branches/ website/ help-lines/ help–desk etc.
- (g) Display the tariff Schedule on Bank's website and a copy of it will be made available at every branch for customer's perusal. Also Bank will display in its branches a notice about the availability of the Tariff Schedule at the branch.
- (h) Give details, in Bank's Tariff Schedule, of all charges, if any, applicable to the products and services chosen by customer.
- (i) Inform the customer of any change in the terms and conditions through a letter or Statement of Account, SMS or email as agreed by the customer at least one month prior to the revised terms and conditions becoming effective.
- (j) Ensure that such changes are made only with prospective effect after giving notice of one month. If the bank has made any change without giving such notice which is favorable to the customer, it will notify the change within 30 days of such change. If the change is adverse to the customer, prior notice of minimum 30 days will be provided and the customer may be provided options, to close the account or switch to any other eligible account without having to pay the revised charge or interest within 60 days of such notice.

- (k) Provide information about the penalties to be levied in case of non-observance / breach of any of the terms and conditions governing the product / services chosen by the customer.
- (l) Display on public domain the Banks' Policies on Deposits, Cheque Collection, Grievance Redressal, Compensation and Collection of Dues and Security Repossession.
- (m) Make every effort to ensure that staff dealing in a particular product is properly trained to provide relevant information to customers fully, correctly and honestly.
- (n) Ensure to communicate to the applicant within a reasonable time period as decided by the bank about the acceptance / non-acceptance of applications submitted for availing a product / service and convey in writing the reasons for not accepting / declining the application. Such period will be notified in the bank's website and also in the application of the particular product or service.
